TIA JUANA TALK REVIVED

DEFEAT OF CALIFORNIA RACING MEASURE LEADS TO DISCUSSION OF PROJECT.

Wealthy California Breeders Reported Willing to Lend Substantial Aid to Plan for Establishing Winter Racing Near San Diego.

Los Angeles, Cal., November 13.—With the defeat of the California Racing Commission bill comes a revival of talk about building a racing plant at I'a Juana, just across the international line from Sau Diego, and if the revolution in the southern republic ever goes out of business it is quite probable that a track will be built in the border town.

California breeders, wealthy men like Clarence Waterhouse and Adolph Spreckles, who own great breeding farms in the state, have said that they would contribute heavily to a responsible enterprise that contemplated building a racetrack at Tia Juana, if racing could not be resumed in California. They have not indicated any change of mind recently, so it is to be presumed that they still are willing to aid in that project.

James Butter, the multi-millonaire, of New York, who built the Yonkers racetrack and is the heaviest stock holder in the Juarez racing plant, is reported to have been considering the division of winter racing between Juarez and Tia Juana, but held off because of the prospect that racing might be resumed in California.

The vote against the breeders' bill indicates that racing in California with any form of betting will remain only a dream for an indefinite number of years, so there is no necessity for further delay by these men if they still are considering the experiment of racing at Tia Juana.

KOHLER SHIPMENT TO EUROPE.

Eleven Yearlings Destined for Racing in England and Broodmares for Stud in France.

New York, November 13.—Charles Kohler, one of the most enthusiastic of American turfmen, made an important shipment of thoroughbreds to France and England last Saturday. In all twenty horses were shipped, cleven of which were yearlings, eight of the eleven having been purchased from James R. Keene. The yearlings are to be kept in England for racing there next year, while nine broodmares, all in foal to Charles Edward, will go to Mr. Kohler's French breeding establishment.

All of the Keene purchases are fillies. They are Divine, by Hippodrome—Delty: Clavecin, by Peter Pan—St. Cypria: Coronis, by Voter—Court Dress: Bellasrie, by Hippodrome—Biturica, the dam of Maskette; Speedyfoot, by Voter—Swiftfoot: Dudelsack, by Ben Brush—Domlnoes; Militona, by Superman—Mayfair, and Umbria, by Superman—Umbra. The other yearlings are the colts Double Bass, by Uncle—Double Sif, and Bendal, by Uncle Bremen, as well as the filly North Light, by Northern Star—Torchlight.

The broodmares that went over in the shipment were: Cottage Maid, Love Cliff, Honorine, My Bucla, Ever True, Flutter, Bettie Vincent, Rubbish and Brookweed.

Mr. Kohler now has 120 thoroughbreds and from his first entry to the turf be has always been in the market for good ones. He has met with only a fair measure of success racing, but in the meantime be has gathered together a string that is bound to succeed—both on the race courses and in the breeding stud.

SENATOR GITTINS GOES TO CONGRESS.

Among racing folk in New York State much satisfaction is derived from the fact that at the recent election, Robert H. Gittins, author of the bill which would have relieved directors from liability at race tracks where betting might be going on, defeated his opponent for Congress by a large majority. Gittins ran ahead of the national and state tickets, he receiving 8,569 votes, while President-elect Wilson received 7,634 votes and Governor-elect Sulzer 8,138. Senator Gittins' district embraces the so-called silkstocking section of Buffalo. His majority was 1,578.

STAKE FOR LATONIA RACER

FRANK E. BROWN WINS FEATURE OF OPEN-ING DAY AT NORFOLK WITH MERRY LAD.

Horse Is Quoted at 40 to 1 in the Betting and Runs a Meritorious Race-Jamestown Jockey Club's Meeting Begins Auspiciously.

Norfolk, Va., November 13.—Frank E. Brown, who arrived from Latonia with his stable on Sunday, furnished the winner of the Lynnhaven Hotel Stakes, the feature race of the opening day at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track, in Merry Lad, which showed an excellent performance in coming from last place to beat Kornak half a length in a driving finish. Merry Lad was one of the extreme outsiders and went to the post with odds of 40 to 1 quoted against his chances. He was ridden by jockey Ganz, overcame much early interference, and, finishing with a great rush, wore down the tiring leaders and won going away. The erratic Hilarious fiatered his backers by taking the lead in the early running and making the pace until straightened out for the final drive. Then he retired.

The opening was by far the best that the Jamestown Jockey Club has ever had. A tremendous crowd turned out and some good sport was witnessed. The change in track conditions as compared with Pimlico, and the mixup of horses from Latonia and Baltimore, made it a difficult proposition for the followers of form to get a good line, and the afternoon's results showed only one winning favorité. Frank J. Bryan, who is acting as the Jockey Club steward, was active during the afternoon. After the running of the stake race, he had jockey J. Glass on the carpet, with the result that this rider was told to pack his kit and leave. Glass's offense was taking hold of the bridle of Blackford and While Wood during the running of the Lynnhaven Hotel Stakes. He admitted taking hold of Blackford and While Wood during the running of the Lynnhaven Hotel Stakes. He admitted taking hold of Blackford and while Wood during the running of the Lynnhaven Hotel Stakes. He admitted taking hold of Blackford and while Wood during the running of the Lynnhaven Hotel Stakes. He admitted taking hold of Blackford and while Wood during the running of the Lynnhaven Hotel Stakes. He admitted taking hold of Blackford and while wood was entered for $900 and he was promptly bid up $305 over that ago by the selling race process, and it looks as it there may be some lively times here among the haltermen.

Four carloads of horses arrived from Latonia. In the lot were the horses of Archie Zimmer, Adair & Baker, F. E. Brown, H. Fink, W. P. Reed, Wayne Lewis, N. B. Davis, George Richings, Louis Tauber, F. J. Pons, and George W. Innis. Several jockeys also came from the Kentucky track, including Loftins, Ganz, C. Peak, Buxton, Vandusen, Fain and C. Turner.

Albert Simons, acting as agent for Harry Payne Whitney, sold the following horses at private sale this morning to J. O. Talbott: Tarts, Jewel of Asia. Henpeck and two yearlings, one by Broomstick—Vespers and another by Burgomaster—Breakdown.

Before leaving Pimlico, N. K. Beal purchased Handsallround from William Garth.

C. L. Mackay shipped a carload of horses direct to Juarez from Pimlico. Adolante and El Toro were among the number.

Fifteen layers operated this afternoon and business was reported as being brisk. The big throng present include, among others, Charles O. Smith, E. J. McGraw, "Pop" Redfern, P. McKenna, Louis Stuart, Charlie Ellison, T. W. O'Frien, of Chicago; Stoney Abrams, of New Orleans; John Howard, Phil Hyams, Jack Gordon, Ike Hakleberg, George S. Davis, William Selleck, Jack Sturgis, Mart Demerser, Claude Kyle, G. W. Langdon, Frank E. Brown, Lee Price, Archie Zimmer, R. A. Keunedy, Steve Urlommedieu, J. Murphy, George Riordan and L. A. While being exercised after the races this evening. Tweedecdle stumbled and, unscatting his rider, fell and broke one of his legs. Triton, which was working behind him, stumbled over the prostrate rider and horse and was led off the track in a lame condition. Neither of the boys were hurt, but Tweedecdle was destroyed.

Euclid Alard, of California, who is sick in one of the Baltimore hospitals, is reported as improving. W. Gerdes has quit the turf once more and has signed a contract for a year with a Baltimore moving picture concern.

Many of the jockeys' who have been riding in Canada and Kentucky are here. These, coupled with those from Baltimore, will make up a list that has not been equaled in this country in two years. So numerous were the applications for stable accommodations that Manager Bob Levy had to erect 200 additional stalls to comply with the demand. Worth's injured leg has been in a brace ever since his severed tendon was sewn together.

The following were among the work-outs at the Jamestown track this morning:

RACING RECORD OF A BEN BRUSH GELDING.

The victory of P. S. P. Randolph's Besom at Pimlico Tuesday, following a retirement dating back to last spring, demonstrates that this speedy son of Ben Brush is of the enduring type of racer. Besom did not distinguish himself as a two-year-old, but ever since that time he has figured as a sprinter of consistency, always been able to make a creditable showing in high class company. Had it been his fortune to race in the more prosperous days of the turf he would doubtless have won for his owners a considerably larger sum than the $17,560 which stands to his credit. His racing record is shown in the following tabulation:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The English Jockey Club has adopted a rule providing that no allowance of weight shall be made to a horse for being the first produce of a mare.

At the Newmarget October sales one of the notable offerings was Lord Derby's King William, by William the Third, which went to Mr. Holliday Hartley for $5,250. This horse was considered one of the best in England last spring and is still believed to be equal to almost any task, but he will not try in a race. King William was entered at the same sales a month before and withdrawn, though more than $10,000 could have been had for him then.

"Miss lise Bulford, daughter of the jockey, Herr S. Bulford, made her appearance as the first female jockey in Austria-Hungary on the Rakespalota race course, near Budapest, recently," says The London Daily Mail's Vienna correspondent. "Her horse, though favorite, finished last. It was too strong for her, broke away before the falling of the flag and was brought back with difficulty and then, at the real start, lost ten yards, which it never made up."

A writer in The Calentta Field has it that there real start, lost ten yards, which it never made up."

A writer in The Calcutta Field has it that there was really no necessity for legislation in connection with betting in India, as the heavlest speculation at any fixture there is small by comparison with even one of the small meetings in England. The paper quoted then adds: "There is no heavy gambling on race courses in India for the best of all possible reasons that the average racegoer is a small bettor and cannot afford to be otherwise. The men who do bet in big sums can be counted on the fingers of one hand and can well afford to indulge themselves in this or in any other hobby."

selves in this or in any other hobby."

At Saint Cloud in France Monday August Belmont's Orage, with jockey Bellhouse riding, won the Prix de Gaillon of 5,000 francs, for three-year-olds and upward. The distance was 2,400 meters and three other horses ran. Plaisir d'Amour, owned by the American, Mr. Wood, with Childs up, finished third in the Prix des Barrieres, for which fifteen horses competed. The purse was 4,000 francs, distance 900 meters and two-year-olds were eligible. Reine des Felibres, owned by M. Roberts, with jockey Reiff riding, was first and the Vicomte d'Harcourt's Barbade, with Stern up, was second.

GOVERNOR DIX SAVES LAYER FROM JAIL.

Albany, N. Y.. November 13.—Governor Dix has pardoned Thomas Coyle, of Rochester, who was sentenced on October 12 to serve one year in the Munro County Pepitentiary, following his conviction for violating the so-called anti-bookmaking law. Coyle accepted from a detective employed by the Rochester Chief of Police a $25 bet on a race horse. The Governor acted upon letters received from several prominent residents of Rochester, asking that the pardon be granted. F. C. Peck, counsel for Coyle, in a memorandum submitted to the Governor alleged that his client was a "yletim of political mälice" rather than a sufferer from the honest activities of the police in seeking to enforce the law and prohibit betting in the city of Rochester.
